Hair Neglected

Soon becomes dry, harsh, coarse, and full of dandruff; it loses vitality and turns prematurely gray, or falls out rapidly and threatens early baldness. A careful dressing daily with Ayer's Hair Vigor-the best preparation for the purpose-will preserve the hair in all its luxuriance and beauty to a good old age.

"My hair was faded and dry," writes Mabel C. Hardy, of Delaware, Ill., "but after using only half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it became black and glossy. I cannot express the gratitude I feel."

Frederick P. Coggeshall, Bookseller, 51 Merrimack St., Lowell, Mass., writes: Some six or seven years ago my wife had a severe illness, in consequence of which she became almost entirely bald and was compelled to wear a wig. A few months since she began to apply Ayer's Hair Vigor to the scalp, and, after using three bottles, has a good growth of bair started all over her head. The hau is now from two to four inches long, and growing freely. The result is a most gratifying proof of the merit of your admirable preparation."

ROUND-UPS.

A Movement that Will Favorably Affect the Spring Market.

Aged Steers to be Fattened in the Territory Outlook for Wool Improved-Live Stock Matters Generally.

Fifty carloads of cattle were shipped from Sweetwater last week. Sheepmen of Scathern Texas are refusing offers of 20 and 22 cents for their wool, expecting to get 25 cents. On his last trip to the Indian Territory Col. M. Z. Smizzen leased 120,000 acres of land near Arkansas City for a period of ten years.

Mrs. James Thom of Abilene, while up in Canada, bought eighteen head of thoroughbred short horn Durham cattle. They arrived and have been taken to their farm in Jones county.

There has been several sales of fine stock, horses and mules, in Fort Worth | lished by the testimony of thousands of to-day notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The spring trade is on, and on with a rush. The recent removal eases or affections arising from impure of a firm of heavy dealers in mules from Itasca to Fort Worth has brought to this in that stock, who will make things lively | every part of the system. Try it. while the demand lasts.

W. D. Capps of the Two Circle bar ranch, near Colorado City, says there will be more tank building this year than ever before. The stockmen are getting tired of windmills and troughs on account of the unreliability of the wind and the constant expense of keeping them up, and most of them will now begin putting in large dams across the draws and save up big supplies of water when it rains.

John Wingo came down from the Syndicate headquarters on Yellow House last week, where he has been for the last five months. He says cattle are in the lower pasture, and that the prospects are there will be from 7000 to 10,000 calves branded from that herd alone in the spring. He thinks the water problem has been successfully solved there, and that there will be no more cattle lost from James McCloud of Dakota owns an equine curiosity. It is perfectly formed | in all respects, except that it has eight feet. Not until the pastern or fetlock joint is reached in the descent from the shoulder to the foot is there any apparent difference between this horse and any other. But at the pastern joint, or lower end of the shin bone, the branch begins, and two perfectly formed feet are found on each of the four legs. The horse runs on the range the same as any, and as fast as most of them.

We congratulate the wool growers of this country upon the improved outlook of their important staple. The stocks of wool on hand in city as well as interior markets are the lightest for years. Wool which has been sold in this market of late in immense quantities cannot be replaced at what it sold for. There is a quiet yet steady hardening of prices. Since January Boston alone has sold 43,417,082 pounds more wool than for the corresponding time in 1887. In all foreign wool markets the clip is higher than last year .- Boston Cultivator.

John S. Andrews of Dallas, who was in Fort Worth yesterday, says that a large number of aged steer cattle are being bought up all over the state, and are being placed in the nation and other parts of the country to fatten for the market next year. These movements on the grass, which would otherwise have gone on the market early in the spring, will be held until the late fall to fatten. cattle will be ready for shipment to market any earlier in the spring, because they will not be fattened on the winter grass, is over, which will not be any earlier by reason of the present mildness.

An increase on the totals for 1887 of show. Here is an aggregate gain of 422,-858 animals—a most wonderful showing sons are made with the year that furnished a greater number in each class than was ever recorded for any previous twelve months. To make the grand aggregates entered up for 1888 stand out for that year to have been 1,382,477 cat- before. tle (including calves), 335,810 sheep, and 10,398 horses. Thus, in the space of eight years we have gained 1,229,066 cattle, 1,179,204 sheep, 44,935 horses. In other words, we have doubled our receipts of cattle, and more than quadrupled our receipts of sheep, while our horse trade is six times as great as then .-Chicago Market Review.

From the several stockmen who have been visiting the city during and since the holidays, we learn that range stock of all kinds in the country are in excellent condition and are doing finely. The recent light snowfall was a bonanza to stockmen. Sheep and cattle now extend their | phia this afternoon. area of grazing grounds, and can be found upon the more elevated plateaus which they avoid during the summer absence of water at those places. The mistake many young men make in the business, '' said an old stockman. 'is in throwing out hay as soon as snow falls. It won't do. As a rule, the cattle that do best are those that never saw a forkful of hay in their lives. Without it they become independent and rustle; with it they become dependent and look for their regular feed from the fork. Now and then we may have a winter when they require it, so it is well enough to have some on hand in case of an emergency. With a winter like this it is worse than useless to feed hay, "- [Mon-

Forced to Move to America.

PITTSBURG, PA., Jan. 23 .- Edward James, a prominent English tin plate manufacturer, is in the city looking up a location for the iron and tin plate company of Tipton, England, which it is proposed to move here. Mr. James stated to a Dispatch reporter that over $17,000,-000 had been contributed by English tin plate manufacturers and merchants to defeat the clause in the senate tariff bill imposing a duty on tin plate, and this sum has been judiciously placed in the hands of lobbyists for that purpose. In event of the passage of the bill the industry will likely be wound up in England and many workers will flock to this country. At present there are 203 tin plate mills in Great Britain, employing fully 100,000 men.

alliance exchange at their late meeting were reluctantly compelled to accept the resignation of Dr. Fields as president of the exchange. They selected as his successor Brother Silas D. A. Duncan, who is eminently qualified to fill the position to which he has been called. Brother Duncan was born at New Orleans, La., June 21, 1849, and is, therefore, in the prime of life, being less than forty years of age. In the summer of 1852 his parents moved to Ontario, Canada, where he remained until 1856, when he again turned his face toward the sunny South and located in Grimes county, Texas. In the winter of that year, Brother Duncan removed from Grimes county to Brazos county, where he is now actively engaged in farming and stock raising, and is one of Brazos county's most successful and progressive farmers. He resides nine miles west of Bryan, the county seat. In 1878 he married Miss M. S. Smith. Brother Duncan joined the alliance four years ago and to-day is one of its "wheel horses." From the day of one of its most ardent supporters, and William Arbuckle, tax collector for has advocated its principles almost inliance. He served a term as president of earnest worker as President Duncan, and we predict for him, his co-workers and the exchange a brilliant and successful career. In regard to Brother Duncan's business qualifications, we feel confident in his ability to keep the bow of the exchange "well up stream." He has been a successful farmer and has made a success of everything yet attempted by him, and we are quick conception and sound judgment, backed up by his high personal integrity, will bring the success the entire order wishes for him and at the same time the confidence of the business world with which he will be brought in contact. Our best wishes, Brother Duncan. ROBERT F. BOALS.

Mr. Robert F. Boals, the new business manager of the Alliance exchange, was born in Madison county, Tenn., in 1835, and was raised in Missouri. He came to Texas in 1865, settling in Tarrant county. Brother Boals was raised on a farm until he was sixteen years old and then entered mercantile life as an employe in a general store in Missouri. In 1862 he joined the Confederate army as private in Tenth regiment, Price's division, Missouri infantry, and remained in active service until paroled at Shreveport, La., in June, 1865, and came direct to Texas. During the first two years he experienced the ups and downs of all other Confederate soldiers. In 1868 he went to work for E. M. Jenkins at Grapevine, in a general store, where he remained until 1875, when he came to Dallas and for eight months was employed in the firm of Blake & Jenkins, after which introduced for the purpose of irritating | employers under the style of Blake, Jenkins & Boals, wholesale dealers in dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes. The death of Mr. Jenkins three years afterwards necessitated the winding up of the affairs of the firm, and Brother Sanger Bros., where he remained sixteen months. At the close of this time he moved back to Tarrant county, bought a farm and run it until 1884, when he went into business at Arlington and remaining until 1887; when he retired and has since that time devoted his time to the care of his farm in that county. Brother Boals joined the alliance as soon as eligible to membership and served as chairman of the ex-committee of the Tarrant county alliance. Brother Boals was the unanimous choice of the board of directors of the exchange, who selected him solely on account of his high business qualifications, strict integrity and the unbounded confidence reposed in him by the business men of Dallas. The appointment was unsought by him and entirely unexpected. He immediately made a gilt-edge bond in the sum of $25,000 and at once assumed charge of the affairs of the exchange.

A Negro Woman Sixty-Four Years Old Shot and Her Cabin Robbed-No Clue to the Murderer. Special to the Gazette.

SAN AUGUSTINE, TEX., Jan. 23 .- A most horrible murder was committed about three miles below here near the an old widowed negro woman about sixtyfour years old named Sophia Watts. Her husband died last spring, leaving her with a good home and well fixed, and she was supposed to have been possessed of $1000 or $1500 in cash. Yesterday evening her nephew happened along and as was his custom called in to see her where he goes to endeavor to prevent the and to his great astonishment found her dead with a bullet hole through her head and the top of her head all mashed in with some heavy instrument, with several pools of blood on the floor and finger prints of blood on the wall papering and on one of the woman's skirts showing that the assassins had used it in cleaning their hands. Justice J. T. Caldwell and Sheriff A. G. Matthews, assisted by Dr. J. E. Harrison, went down and held the inquest. Several negroes were arrested and brought to town, but were discharged for want of testimony. From the advanced state of decomposition of the corpse she is supposed to have been dead nearly or quite a week. She lived alone. All the trunks and boxes in the house were broken open, showing the object to have been robbery.
